

ALL NATURAL HIGH QUALITY STRONG & FLEXIBLE

Wang Derm Brand Banana Leaves

Banana Leaves are an environmentally friendly alternative to foil and plastic wrap. Banana Leaves are adaptable to various methods of cooking because they can withstand boiling, grilling steaming, baking and broiling. Naturally smooth, Banana Leaves are often used as gourmet decoration because they can be shaped into various serving containers. Banana Leaves produce an aromatic fragrance when steamed, enhancing any dish. Wang Derm Brand Banana Leaves are less brittle and more flexible than other brands even after thawing.
